COMMENTS: Steven Marcus request a waiver and states the following: This is his first time running for an elected office AND due to COVID, the reporting schedule changed several times. As soon as he was called and notified that he had missed a report date, he immediately completed the report. There also may have been a delay in posting his report because he initially completed the report incorrectly and was also called and notified of his error which he immediately corrected. He only collected $350 in donations and this assessment is for $400 so the assessment exceeds his campaign contributions amount.

RE:

Late Fee Assessment

Steven Marcus

Dear EAB,

I am in receipt of a letter notifying me of a late assessment for filing a post campaign report for an elected office that I did not win. My only excuses are that this is my first time running for an elected office AND due to COVID, the reporting schedule changed several times and I must plead confusion. As soon as I was called and notified that I had missed a report date, I immediately completed the report. There also may have been a delay in posting my report because I initially completed the report incorrectly and was also called and notified of my error which I immediately corrected. Also, I only collected $350 in donations and this assessment is for $400, so the assessment exceeds my campaign contributions amount.

I have also called the Ethics Board office to verify that I am not late on any subsequent reports and they have informed me that I have no further reports due until I disburse that final $350.

I look forward to your reply and I thank you for consideration of waiving this assessment.
